Duties

The club duty rota organises the members required to run the water and family activities throughout the season. All sailing, family, student members over the age of 18 year must each fulfil two duties in a season. The duty rota can be found on the dutyman website. It is the member's responsibility to arrange a swap and to advise the sailing secretary of any changes to duty. The club holds training sessions each year to enable inexperienced sailors to carry out duties

Communication

Most communications with members will be done via email, our website or our Facebook page .While electronic communications are the clubs preferred mode of communication. If you prefer traditional postage please tick the box on the following page.

Club Keys

If you require a set of club keys (1 of clubhouse,1 of grounds) a deposit of £20 is required. Please enter the amount in the box provided.

Winter boats parking (end October to end February)

If you wish to leave a boat on the club grounds over winter and you are a current member you may do so for a fee of £60. The boats should be moved to the allocated area by the final workparty of the season and left at the owners own risk.
